To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to recommend Ronan Michael Vasanth, who successfully completed a two-week internship at Motilal Oswal Financial Services Ltd. stationed at MG Road, Bangalore under my supervision. During this short period, he displayed a strong willingness to learn, adapt and his interest for Financial markets. But one thing which truly stood out was his passion toward Financial markets as had done this internship during his Grade 10 Christmas school holidays.

Ronan demonstrated excellent analytical and communication skills while assisting with market research, report preparation. He showed professionalism, responsibility, and a positive attitude throughout the internship, quickly grasping new concepts and completing reports in a timely manner.

I am confident that Ronan Micheal Vasanth will continue to perform admirably in future academic or professional endeavours. I strongly recommend him for any position or opportunity that matches his interests and skills.

Sincerely,

Rishab Marda
